

Lincoln Intermediate Unit (IU 12) Cohort

Learning Technologies Master's Degree and Graduate Courses

Program Features:

- Student-focused courses explore cutting-edge approaches and contemporary analysis of instructional design, learning theory and technology-enabled learning solutions
- Reduced tuition for employees at schools within the IU
- All activities required for completion of the degree are conveniently available at the IU

Information Session

Wednesday, April 14, 5:00 p.m.

at the Lincoln Intermediate Unit, 65 Billerbeck Street, New Oxford, PA 17350

RSVP to: IULTCohorts@HarrisburgU.edu

Who should attend: Technology staff, teachers, and librarians interested in integrating learning technologies into teaching and student engagement

Upcoming Courses for Summer and Fall:

Engaging with Learning Activities, Games & Simulations

June 28, 29, 30, July 27, 28, 29, Oct 30

Implementing Web 2.0 in the Classroom

July 7, 8, 9, Aug 3, 4, 5, Oct 23

Instructional Design and Development

Aug. 31- December 14, specific dates and times TBD

Contact:

Heather Marsh
Assistant Director of Admissions
HMarsh@HarrisburgU.edu
717-901-5161

Andy Petroski
Program Director, Learning Technologies
APetroski@HarrisburgU.edu
717-901-5167

Call Admissions at 717.901.5101, email IULTCohorts@HarrisburgU.edu or go to www.HarrisburgU.edu/LearningTechnologies